

About Memorial Granite

For generations, family-owned Memorial Granite has served the tri-state area community, providing personal service to cemeteries of all denominations. More than 50 years of experience has taught us to provide the highest quality memorials with professional and friendly memorial specialists. As a full-service, wholesale monument dealer we can assist with arrangements for virtually any type of monument.

We have several locations of varying sizes to accommodate all requests.

Memorial Granite invites you to come and visit with us and see that we are truly the premier monument dealer in the surrounding suburbs.
